The Tony Award-winning San Francisco Mime Troupe opens its 65th Season of FREE Shows in Bay Area Parks, and in Marin (Mill Valley), Ukiah (Mendocino), Cotati (Sonoma), East Bay, Palo Alto, Santa Cruz, San Jose, and Davis - with their new 2024 show: AMERICAN DREAMS - A New Musical by Michael Gene Sullivan with Marie Cartier, Directed by Michael Gene Sullivan, with Music & Lyrics by Daniel Savio.

The American Dream. It used to mean a job, a house, a car, a spouse, 2.5 kids, and a .4 dog. But what does it mean now? For some it is a good tide raising all boats, for others it is a tsunami that destroys everything. For some it is unity, for others it is dissolution. A handshake or a gun. One citizen's dream has become another's nightmare, and those who fan the flames of the differences will gladly profit while democracy burns.

AMERICAN DREAMS - A New Musical is performed in the characteristic and unique quick-change, singing & dancing, political style of the SF Mime Troupe.

The shows runs July 4 – Sept. 8, 2024

The American Dream. It used to mean a job, a house, a car, a spouse, 2.5 kids, and a .4 dog. But what does it mean now? For Gabriel Pearce, on the day after the presidential election, it means victory. As a Black man tired of liberal failures, giving up on progressive promises of justice wasn't easy. But casting his vote for a Conservative who promise to be grateful could mean a dream come true. But for his daughter, Paine, it's a nightmare! Or was democracy just a dream? Or was the lost election a dream? Or will the climate catch fire first, like her boyfriend sees when he sleeps, or can it be the utopia they both hope for? And what about A.I.? Do androids dream of electronic voting? But whether you're asleep or Woke what some see as nightmares others see as... American Dreams.
